TUESDAY, JUNE 1, 1899.

Our Indian Population.

Recent events have greatly tended to confirm previous impressions regarding the necessity that exists for an Indian policy in this colony. As the dominant race, the subduer, supplanter, the civilizer, if you like it better, of the aboriginal races, certain responsibilities appertain to us which we cannot evade with impunity. We don't go the length of some in regarding the country as the inalienable property of the red man, and view the white man as an intruder without rights. According to the strict rule of international law territory occupied by a barbarous or wholly uncivilized people may be rightfully appropriated by a civilized or Christian nation; but this rigid rule appears to have been somewhat modified to meet modern views, and may now not unfairly be rendered thus:—"The territory of any Government which, from incapacity, fails to discharge its obligations, commercial and social, toward the civilized world, or from its position and policy tends to injure and retard the general progress and common well-being of nations, or endanger the prosperity and safety of its neighbour, may be lawfully seized and possessed by another nation, or by such neighbour." Without waiting to offer any metaphysical disquisition upon the principle thus laid down, we shall proceed to deal with the subject in a more practical way. Viewing this subject from the very lowest standpoint, it is cheaper to be just than unjust. How shall we be just with the poor Indian? Not by civilizing him through the medium of "Jack Ketch." Not by the imposing paraphernalia of our Courts of Justice. The work of reformation, civilization, must begin at the root, not the mere fruit. To become fit subjects for British rule the Indian must be educated up to it, taught the grand principles upon which it is based, made familiar with its requirements and its objects. This accomplished, he will readily adopt it; but, whether he adopt it or not, it can then be fairly enforced in his case, and not till then. Without the knowledge of law there can be no transgression. The Indian has his own code of law, his lex talionis. For the white man to take summary possession of a territory which the red man has been taught—and surely not without much show of reason—to look upon as his own, trample upon his institutions and his customs, domestic, judicial, religious, and political, and enforce, with the hangman's rope, a law of which he is in total ignorance, is scarcely in accordance with our notions of right. But it is not polite, it is not safe! The Indians number five to one of the white population, at the very least, and although intertribal dissensions forbid the idea that they would ever unite to any considerable extent in any movement against the white race, still the latter are so much scattered and so frequently thrown in the way of the red man that the result of a bad understanding constantly subjects the colonists to the most serious danger. But the responsibilities imposed upon us by virtue of our position in this country are not confined to this negative class. It is not only our duty to prevent evil. We are called upon to do positive good, to make the Indians better instead of worse. It is not only our duty but our interest to do this. Neglect of national or collective duty, equally with the neglect of personal duty, is certain to entail punishment. Not only is an Indian policy necessary, therefore, for the purpose of placing the aborigines under the operations of our superior law, and repressing and punishing crime, but it is equally necessary as a means of dealing successfully and justly with that class of our population, in respect to general well-being: Interests agnarian, educational, religious, industrial, all call, and call loudly for some fixed, well defined and well digested Indian policy. There are at the present moment several Indians on trial for their lives, before the Supreme Court of the Colony; and we think it our duty to guard against any possible misconception regarding the foregoing reflections. The authorities are called upon just now to deal with Indians who may, to a great extent, occupy the false position with regard to British law we have been describing; but if it should be proven that these Indians perpetrated the atrocious acts for which they stand indicted, ignorance of British law cannot be pleaded in justification in their case. The man, the monster, who would murder a poor helpless woman, under such circumstances deserves to die a thousand deaths. All that we are called upon to do in their case is to give them a fair trial, and to be careful that their ignorance of our language and our laws is not allowed to divert justice in the slightest degree. But, suppose these Indians are convicted and executed, how far will that proceeding exert a beneficial influence upon the rest of the tribe? It is stated that these prisoners, or some of them, at least, are slaves, whose lives are valued by mere count of blankets. How far would the execution of these Indians operate in deterring other members of the tribe to which they belong from committing similar acts, should opportunity present? These are questions which the authorities ought to put to themselves; and if they cannot return a satisfactory answer, they should find a remedy for a condition of things which no properly balanced mind can possibly contemplate with complacency.

TELEGRAPHIC.

SPECIAL TO THE BRITISH COLUMBIAN.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 30.—The Golden City, from Panama, arrived this morning.

Sailed, May 28, Bark Rival, Port Discovery; 29, Steamer Continental, Portland; Bark Chris. Mitchell, Port Madison.

Arrived, May 30.—Steamer Oriflamme, 3 days and 10 hours from Portland.

CANADA.

MONTREAL, May 29.—People in the valley of the Ottawa are badly off for seeds. Agents have been appointed to go through the Dominion to purchase, especially oats and hay. They are $35 per ton. Grain is so scarce for freight that ships are loading their cargoes at Quebec with lumber.

The Military authorities of Canada have received instructions to start to England all obsolete arms and ammunition in store.

EASTERN STATES.

WHEELING, West Virginia, May 29.—Destruction by the storm yesterday, was far greater than at first supposed. Destruction to vineyards is immense. Those least injured cannot be made productive for years. In a majority of cases they are utterly destroyed. Many sheep and lambs were killed, wheat and corn cut close to the ground. The town of West Liberty is reported in ruins. Hail stones to the depth of 2 feet are on the streets.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Some members are looking forward to the formation at some distant day of 2 or 3 Indian territories, and the final settling of the Indian problem with regular political organization and representations.

NEW ORLEANS, May 29.—Reports of the commerce convention committee on foreign commerce and postal subsidy favored the creation of ports of entry in all the principal cities on Mississippi and tributaries.

OTTAWA, May 29.—In the House of Commons last night the Government resolution respecting the annexation of the north-west territories was carried by a majority of 11.

NEW YORK, May 30.—A Havana special says Government is in great want of coal and will probably put an embargo on all stores on the Island.

CHICAGO, May 30.—A new conspiracy has been discovered at Milan and other ports in Italy. Mazzini and others are implicated, but the objects of the conspiracy are not definitely known.

Private letters from Paris say revolutionary feeling is increasing rapidly. The Government has increased the police force in the principal cities of the empire.

It is asserted that the Emperor of Russia is about to transfer the Capital from St. Petersburg to Kiev, and his palace in the latter place is already under process of construction. The railway is completed from Odessa to Kiev, and will be finished to Moscow.

NEW YORK, May 30.—The Smallpox has broken out in the British steamer Camelion at Panama; fourteen cases are reported.

The yellow fever is raging at San Jose, and Escalante, in San Salvador. The volcano, at Callao, is in active eruption. Enormous streams of lava are pouring into the plain. The breaking out of the volcano was preceded by several shocks of earthquake.

NEW YORK, May 30.—A Herald cable despatch from London states that at a meeting of the Jockey Club Sir Joseph Hawley's motion to prohibit the racing of two years olds before the first of July of each year was lost. Forester's resolution, prohibiting such racing before the first May of each year was carried. This is regarded as the greatest reform the Turf has experienced for years, in reference to the amelioration of thoroughbreds and the morality of the racing community.

EUROPE.

MADRID, May 28.—Serious disturbances occurred to-day at Malaga and Seville. They were directed against the Provisional Government.

MADRID, May 30.—The appointment of Gen. Cabelero Deroda, as Capt. General of Cuba, is gazetted. It is rumored that a new provisional ministry will be formed to remain in office until October, when apheleusism will be taken to decide the question of sovereignty.

Several officers of the army have been arrested at Tortorosa, charged with having been engaged in a conspiracy for the restoration of Queen Isabella.

CUBA.

Late accounts from the Cuban rebels say Count Valmaceda has been driven from Bayamo, and has since been captured, and 2,000 of his troops have died of cholera. His men are destitute of stores, and much discontent prevails. The rebels are greatly elated over their late successes, and were never more sanguine of securing their independence than now.

SECOND DESPATCH.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Thousands of people, laden with bouquets of flowers, and large numbers of wagon loads of flowers, have gone to Arlington to-day to participate in decorating the soldier's graves. Business is suspended, and the city presents the appearance of Sunday, thousands having left to attend the solemn ceremony, decorating the graves of our fallen heroes at Arlington. The departments were all closed.

CHICAGO, May 29.—To-day was observed in Detroit, Providence, Philadelphia, Washington, New York, Boston, and many other cities throughout the country, by decorating the soldier's graves. Citizens generally turned out in large numbers; bells were rung, minute guns were fired, speeches, prayers, &c., comprised the services in many places. The principal ceremonies will occur to-morrow.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Private letters from Paris say the revolutionary feeling is increasing rapidly. The Government have increased the police force in the principal cities of the Empire.

HAVANA, May 29.—The sugar market is quiet; all qualities have slightly declined.

ST. LOUIS, May 30.—Bellefontaine, Calvary and other cemeteries round the city were visited to-day by large crowds of people. The national cemetery at Jefferson Barricks, 12 miles below the city, was very imposing. The graves of 11,708 soldiers were strewn with flowers and decorated with wreaths and crosses.

NEW YORK, May 21.—A Lima letter of May 14 says that the Peruvian Government has recognized the Cubans as belligerents. Governor Valdivia, Cuban commissioner, arrived in Lima some time previous to ask the loan of the Peruvian monitors for the use of the Cuban insurgents, but the request has not been complied with.

BEN BUTLER is said to have stated that he opposed a reciprocity treaty with Canada, as we were unfairly treated in the last one.

CHICAGO, May 30.—To-day was observed at Milwaukee, Buffalo, Gettysburg, Philadelphia, and many other cities with the usual ceremonies.

EUROPE.

LONDON, May 28.—A Time's special at Frankfurt says business in American bonds is confined to the issue of 1892.

To-day the Oak Stakes were won by Brigantine.

The Tories of the country are organizing meetings to protest against the disestablishment of the Irish Church.

Monnet, in reply to Cohoragi, (?) thought the appropriating of a loan for the international Railroad and to pay the debt of Canada, would not be illegal.

MADRID, May 28.—A demonstration in favor of Montpensier is expected at Seville.
